

On average, children in foster care wait two to three years to be adopted.

NOW IS THE TIME END THE WAIT

Be doers of the word, and not hearers only.

—JAMES 1:22 ESV

It's frustrating to wait for someone to respond to a text.

It's annoying to wait on hold for
the customer
service rep.

But it's crushing
to wait years not knowing where
"home" is—
wondering
if you're safe,
if you're truly
alone, if there's
anywhere you
belong, if anyone
even cares.

At any given time, more than 122,000 KIDS in the U.S. are waiting to be adopted.

And the need is especially urgent for teens and sibling groups. They're very aware of the ticking clock and what could happen to them if they age out of foster care without a family—because it becomes the harsh reality for 23,000 teens every year.

You can stop the clock and make a positive impact for a teen who's terrified that time is running out. Maybe this is something you've been thinking about for a while.

Is it time to take the next step?
