

FOSTER CARE IS FAMILY CARE

Being a foster parent is so much more than loving a child in your home.

- It's giving a child a safe place to land in a hard, scary time.
- It's showing kindness to a family when they need it most.
- It's showing compassion to a parent when their child is away from home.
- It's helping a child stay connected to their family, in whatever way it's safe to do so.

At Bethany, our heart beats for family. We want to see families strong, supported, and together. But we know there are times when families face challenges—and children need care.

That's why we're seeking foster parents who believe in families too.
